2008: Suzuki and Yamaha are alone among Japanese 250s by now. The two of them are basically at a draw; both have strong points and weak points, but there will be no more progress. Suzuki discontinues the RM in 2009. It's the end of what many consider to be the most successful model run in motocross history, from a pure performance point of view.

In 1975, the RM (racing machine) was introduced to the world, and the year 2008 brings us the last of the RM250 two-strokes. In most situations this article would be a first impression ride, but sadly this is our last introductory ride on the quarter liter machine, thus being our "last impression."
