This indicates that you have a D300 Managed (D300M) drive. Managed devices are designed for large-scale deployments and the use of a centrally managed IronKey Enterprise Management Service (a yearly licence per device and separate purchase) is needed. It is this Management Service that issues activation codes and is administered by an administrator. A minimum of two devices are needed to run ...

The D in D300 not only stands for distance, it defines it. The newly designed D300 driver combines Right Light Technology with Micro Vortex Generators to reduce the drag force leading to increased club head speeds and greater distance. Try your driver, and then try ours. You'll understand why your foursome calls you the Distance Machine.
