Every Christian is a theologian. We are always engaged in the activity of learning about the things of God. We are not all theologians in the professional or academic sense, but theologians we are, for better or for worse. The “for worse” is no small matter. Second Peter warns that heresies are destructive to the people of God and are blasphemies committed against God. They are destructive ...

Essential Truths of the Christian Faith: R. C. Sproul ...

The Christian faith is based on Christ crucified and resurrected to life. "And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain" (1 Corinthians 15:14). Lastly, to deny Christ's bodily resurrection (John 2:19-21) is to deny that Jesus' work here on earth was a satisfactory offering to God for the sins of mankind.

Rebirth, then, is an essential part of Christianity; without it, entrance into God's kingdom is impossible.

Regeneration is the theological term used to describe rebirth. It refers to a new generating, a new genesis, a new beginning. It is more than "turning over a new leaf"; it marks the beginning of a new life in a radically renewed person.

Essential Truths of the Christian Faith - BibleGateway.com

Essential Truths. Drafted by Rufus Jones and James Wood. The vital principle of the Christian faith is the truth that man's salvation and higher life are personal matters between the individual soul and God. Salvation is deliverance from sin and the possession of spiritual life. This comes through a personal faith in Jesus Christ as the Savior, who, through His

Essential Truths of the Christian Faith spends three or fewer pages describing each of the 100 most intriguing topics in Christian doctrine. Dr. Sproul helps to easily describe the Calvinist or Reformed view point in a way that is comprehensible for all. This work does not go into scholarly discussions about these topics. It is not intended for that. What it does do is provide an introduction ...
