This was my first reaction upon reviewing Binimad Al-Ateeqi's new book: Quran Math Miracles. I rarely endorse a book, but this one is totally different. We all know that the Quran is a linguistic miracle with no equal—but were you also aware that the Quran is a symphony of seemingly impossible mathematical harmony? Your eeman is guaranteed ...

But what about a numerical miracle? What about the fact that this book is structured upon an ingenious mathematical formula, based primarily on the number 7, proving without a shadow of a doubt that no human could have ever written this book, and that every single letter in the Quran is the pure word of God?
